Blank Crusaders 14-0

Vikings at East Jordan

The Grayling Vikings posted their third straight victory and second conference win last Friday evening on the local gridiron as they shut out the Petoskey St. Francis Crusaders 14-0.

Jim Tobin, Viking's pint-size tailback, tallied all the points in the victory on two TD pass plays and a two point pass conversion.

This Friday evening, the Vikings will be on the road as they journey to East Jordan for a Northern Lower Michigan League game with the Red Devils. Like the Vikings, East Jordan also holds a 3-0 season record.

Mancelona also continued undefeated in league play as they routed Harbor Springs 42-6, while the Onaway Cardinals posted a 20-0 league win over the Kalkaska Blue Blazers last Friday night.

Except for the second and fourth quarter scores, the game was strictly a battle of the defensive teams.

The Vikings first touchdown came on a fourth down pass play when Tim Mead, Viking quarterback, tossed a strike to Tobin and the little tailback scampered 25 yards into the end zone. Mead passed to Tobin for the 2 point conversion, and the half ended with the Vikings on top 8-0.

In the second half, the Crusaders went into a gap 8 defense and for a short time were in the Viking backfield as much as the green and white clad backs, dropping Mead for losses totaling 45 yards.

The Vikings countered this defense by shifting into a short punt formation, which gave Mead more time to find his receivers in passing situations.

It was out of this formation in the fourth quarter that Mead dropped back and threw another TD strike to Tobin which covered 33 yards into the end zone. The conversion attempt failed, and the Vikings held on to post the 14-0 shutout.

Jerry King was the workhorse in the Vikings running attack as he gained 107 yards in 27 carries, to go along with the Mead-Tobin passing game, leading the Viking offense.

For the Viking's defensive unit, Murray Babbitt led the backs as he hauled in three of the five interceptions Grayling had. Ron Shepler and Brian Dunkley each had one. Along with his three interceptions, Babbitt made four solo tackles.

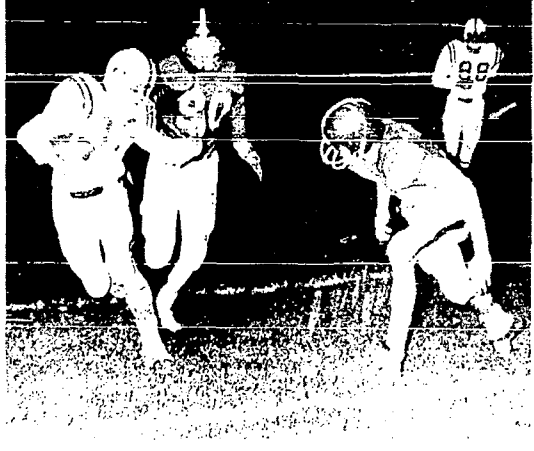

Doug Legg again anchored the Viking's defensive line as he accounted for eight tackles.

The defensive crew allowed Petoskey only four first downs, two on penalties, and held them to a total of 60 yards rushing and 46 yards passing.

If coach Mike Weiland's Vikings can get by the Red Devils this Friday, and there isn't a sleeper in the woodpile, like Onaway last season, the conference championship could go right to the final game with Mancelona Ironmen here on Nov. 6th.

J.V.'s Over Gaylord, 22-8

By Jimmy McClain

The Grayling JV's continued their winning ways by defeating the Gaylord Blue Devils for their third straight win.

The Blue Devils scored on the opening kick-off with a long return. The conversion was run in by a running back giving them a 8-0 lead.

In the second quarter Wayne Westervelt unloaded with a long pass to his end, Andy Trevino. Westervelt ran the ball around the right end making the conversion good. Grayling scored again in the second quarter on a short pass from Chris Dunkley to Andy Trevino. The conversion was no good, giving the Vikings a 14-8 halftime lead.

Gaylord was scored upon once more in the fourth quarter on a reverse run by Bruce King. The conversion was good on a pass from Wayne Westervelt to Bob Miller giving the JV's their 22-8 victory.

Bill Horning and Dave White both picked up good yardage, Horning getting 66 yards and White 61 yards rushing.

At quarterback, Westervelt hit on 7 for 23 passes and Chris Dunkley connected for two out of six passes.

The Vikings picked up 8 first downs to the Blue Devils 3.

Mike Hoffman and Joe Shepler both played well on defense.

Coach Lehti said that the entire defensive squad looked good but that their offense could still use a little work.

The JV's next game is on Tuesday, Oct. 6, with the Mancelona Ironmen at Grayling.

The concert will be opened by groups from the Junior High Choir. This will be followed by the Grayling Concert Choir who will present four numbers. These selections by the Concert Choir will all be performed a cappella. The numbers selected were chosen because of their interesting and demanding harmonic structure. These numbers represent various periods of musical composition, ranging from pre-classical plain songs to the very modern sounds of the twelve tone scale.

The final portion of the concert will be a repeat performance of the rock mass "Rejoice". "Rejoice" was first performed by the Concert Choir last year in their Spring Concert, and it received such acclaim at that time that it was decided that the performance would be repeated. Plans are to add several voices to the performing group as well as increasing the number of accompanists. With this large number of performers and in a different setting, this performance of "Rejoice" should be a most memorable event.

150 Attend Scout Camporee

Grayling Troop 77 Wins Blue Ribbon

Over 150 boys and leaders attended the Boy Scout Fall Camporee held on September 25, 26, and 27 at Dobson Ranch, four miles west of West Branch. The theme for the Camporee, which was headed by James Mark of Tawas City, was "Lost".

Sixteen patrols of Scouts participated in an adventure trail of six events based on skills needed if a person was lost in the woods. Among the skills tested were use of a compass, fire by flint and steel, estimating heights and distances, use of rope and knots, lashing, and signaling. Each project was designed so that the boys used the skills to find their way along (See Scout Camporee on page 10)

COUNTY G.O.P. TO MEET OCT. 14th

To get out a big Republican vote in the November election, final arrangements will be made by party workers next week. It will be held in the County Building Wednesday, Oct. 14, at 7 p.m. — half an hour earlier than usual.

Workers will stress voting a straight party ticket plus support for two Republican candidates for the State Supreme Court who will be listed on the non-partisan section of the ballots.

These candidates are Justice John R. Dethmers, incumbent, and Circuit Judge Edward S. Piggins. This race is particularly important this year because the Supreme Court will have to pass on Michigan's reapportionment as a result of the 1970 census.

County Chairman Bruce B. Benson will preside at next Wednesday's meeting. All Republican enthusiasts are invited.

1,810 Students Enrolled In District Schools

Crawford AuSable Schools have reported a net enrollment increase of 164 students over last year's enrollment of 1,646. This year's enrollment of 1,810 students includes 167 in Frederick Elementary, 809 in Grayling Elementary and 834 in Grades 7 through 12.

Grayling High School fell 28 students short of Class B status with an enrollment of 522 students in grades 9 through 12. A minimum of 550 students is needed for Class B status.

Warning

The Tank Range at Camp Grayling, located North of the North Down River Road and East of the East Branch of the AuSable River will be closed for Range firing 10 and 11 Oct. 1970.

The Artillery Range at Camp Grayling, located North of County Road 612 and South of the North Branch of the AuSable River, will be used by National Guard Units 7 thru 11 Oct. 1970 for range firing, Air/Ground.

The Known Distance Range, located South West of Lake Margrothe will be used for small arms firing 10 and 11 Oct. 1970.

These ranges will be closed on above dates and all persons are warned to stay out of these areas.

The recent criticism of canoeing on the AuSable was the principal topic of discussion at the meeting held Sept. 29 by the Canoe Livery Association of Michigan. All Grayling canoe livers were represented and it was pointed out by several that rental canoes are only part of the total number of canoes on the river.

Many church groups, Boy and Girl Scout troops, summer campers and others have their own canoes and put in at the livers in Grayling for the trip down the river. No charge is ever made by the livers for this service. It was felt that if any regulations or restrictions are to be made as to canoeing on Michigan streams, they must be made to apply equally to all and not just to rental canoes.

The Canoe Association has been voluntarily limiting the number of canoes they put in on the river for some time and have seen the demand for canoes grow each year. This demand is being met by sources outside the area.

The criticism of camping and picnicking grounds on the river was felt justified and a number of suggestions were made and will be acted upon.

1. Better law enforcement should be provided at campsites. Regulations on curfew, vandalism, rowdiness, etc. should be posted and enforced.

2. A general improvement should be made in facilities at all campgrounds.

3. The picnic ground at Canoe Camp is not sufficient for this area and additional sites should be maintained at Burton, Keystone or other spots.

4. The program of livery maintained litter barrels should be expanded with each livery being responsible for an area. Some enforcement is necessary to keep cabin refuse from being dumped in these barrels as at present.

5. The new Wakeley Bridge Canoe Pullout should be improved with the livery operators doing most of the work on this. The overcrowding at Wakeley Bridge should be relieved by next summer.

6. More river cleanups should be organized with more local group participation as well as from outside.

7. Proper rules of canoe conduct should be established and posted prominently in the livers and canoes. These will cover littering, excessive noise, regard for private property, tipping of canoes, drunkenness, etc.

The Association reaffirmed their desire to work closely in cooperation with the DNR, the Property Owners Association and all other interested groups and individuals to better the conditions on Michigan waters so that the needs and desires of our recreation seeking public will be most properly served while still preserving the qualities which have made this form of recreation so popular.

RETIREES FROM BEAR ARCHERY — Fred Bear presents a watch to John Blake, Inspector in Bear Archery's bow department, upon Blake's retirement after nearly 17 years with the Archery. Blake joined Bear in 1954 and was appointed inspector in 1965. The presentation was made at a dinner party held last Friday evening at the Arrowhead Inn and attended by Mr. and Mrs. Bear, Mr. and Mrs. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Jeffery, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Galland, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Wodren.

Split Shift Schedules at GHS

Now that everyone has adjusted more or less to the split shift being used in grades 7 through 12, it doesn't seem quite as bad as it once did. As a matter of fact, many students have indicated that they prefer the split shift (especially the senior high students).

Several facts need to be pointed out however so that everyone understands the situation that students in grades 7 through 12 are in. First, special permission must be granted by the State Department of Education to run a reduced school day. The Department has been very reluctant to grant such permission, as in the case of the Kalkaska Schools. Second, since a school must provide a minimum of 180 days and 990 hours of instruction to each student, the local school system will have to increase the number of days of school if the classes do not resume a normal schedule by January 4.

Also, although attendance times are not too unreasonable for students living in Grayling, they pose quite a hardship to students who live some distance from the city and must catch a bus as early as 6:20 a.m. or may return home as late as 7:30 p.m. in the evening.

Split shift scheduling does not cost less than a normal program. Increased transportation costs caused by triple bus runs would eventually exceed the cost of needed new school facilities.

Present plans call for the continuation of the split shift until December 14 when the new classrooms will be completed and classes will resume a normal schedule.

NO PUMPKIN SALE

The Jaycees would like to inform the people of Grayling that they will not conduct their "Pumpkin on Every Porch" sale this year.

They appreciate the support of those who bought pumpkins in the previous years but report that due to the fact that a few took pumpkins without contributing and someone helped themselves to one of their money canisters last year, it was a losing proposition.

Scouts Plan to Attend World Jamboree in Japan

Four Boy Scouts from the Paul Bunyan Council, have filed applications to attend the 13th World Jamboree to be held in Japan in 1971. They are Douglas Greminger and Charles Overberger, Troop 65, Memorial Presbyterian Church, Midland; Matthew Welsler, Troop 79, St. Pauls Episcopal Church, Gladwin; and Bernard Larson, Troop 77, Grayling Kiwanis Club.

Scout Larson has filed in competition for a $1,000 Scholarship being offered by the Lutheran Brotherhood Insurance Society to go to some Scout or Explorer who has earned the Eagle rank, the Pro Deo et Patria religious emblem, and demonstrated outstanding leadership in his church as well as in Scouting.

The Scouts met last week with members of the Paul Bunyan Council Jamboree Committee, John Hodge, Chairman, and Charles G. Schmitt to discuss plans for participation.

This Jamboree will be held for a nine day period next August, 1971, at Asagiri Heights on the west side of Mt. Fuji in Japan. More than 20,000 boys (14 to 18 years of age) and leaders from around the world are expected to participate, and it will be the largest gathering of Scout-ing's international brotherhood since the 12th World Jamboree in Idaho in 1967. Expected attendance from the United States is 3000.

Official theme of the Jamboree is "For Understanding."

In addition to the Jamboree program, the United States contingent will make on 8 day tour of Japan, visiting important and interesting Japanese cities such as Tokyo, Nikko, Kyoto and Nara. This event offers the opportunity of a lifetime to qualified Scouts and Explorers.

Any further applications need to be in the hands of the Paul Bunyan Council Executive, Arthur E. Henry, immediately to satisfy the deadline of October 1st, 1970.

BITS O' TALK

Mr. and Mrs. Slusser, who live on Fletcher Road south of Grayling, called to report that their Easter Lily is in bloom. Mrs. Slusser got the Lily this past Easter at which time it had five blooms on it. After it was done blooming she put it outside and it started to die. Then it started coming back to life and when the weather turned chilly she brought it back in the house. Yesterday, Thursday, the first bud opened up and there are two more buds which should open up within the next few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Money and family spent the opening weekend of bird season in Mio visiting their folks and doing some bird hunting. The group of men, of which there were five, got 12 birds.

Richard Kraus was home from the University of Michigan and spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kraus.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNally returned home Thursday from spending a week with his brother in Purdin, Mo., where they went to attend the funeral of a friend of Mr. McNally, that he used to work with, who passed away in Howell.

DNR Plans Office Bldg. At Roscommon

The Michigan Department of Natural Resources has plans under way for the construction of a regional office building and administration center on highway M-18, one mile south of Roscommon.

Deputy Director Warren W. Shapton, stated that a site study has been made and design drawings are being developed for the new regional headquarters that will house administrative, staff and general offices, stenographic areas, library and conference rooms and general utility facilities.

According to Greimel, Malcomson, James, Inc., the Detroit based architectural firm developing the design drawings, the 9000 square foot, one story structure is planned to provide open, spacious inter-related offices and work areas through the use of glass and solid partitions. By employing movable partitions and a ceiling design which incorporates illumination and air-conditioning features as an integral part of the lighting fixture, internal flexibility can easily be obtained to meet changing functional requirements.

The department estimates the overall construction cost including site work to be approximately $300,000. Ground is expected to be broken sometime in the Fall of 1970 with project completion and occupancy scheduled for 1971.

The new office will be the administrative focal point for all field operations in the northern half of the lower Peninsula, (Region II) which has district offices in Gaylord, Cadillac, Gladwin and Mio.

Regional Manager C. Troy Yoder said the new headquarters means a stronger, more effective regional Department and better service to the people of Michigan in the management of their natural resources.

Prize Pork Barrel

Economist Peter Drucker once wrote, "The moment government undertakes anything, it becomes entrenched and permanent." Frightening affirmation of Mr. Drucker's thesis can be seen in the steady expansion of government programs that cost the taxpayers untold billions of dollars.

One of these programs, known as, "aid to federally impacted areas" is the subject of a revealing article in The Reader's Digest by the Digest's Washington Editor, Kenneth O. Gilmore. Mr. Gilmore reports that Presidents Kennedy, Johnson and Nixon have sought to stop the outflow from this particular pork barrel. According to Mr. Gilmore, it is a device by which vote-seeking politicians can practically guarantee themselves votes. This particular federal spending program was conceived in 1950 as an emergency measure to help local school districts that were being inundated by large numbers of "federal" school children — children whose parents worked at government installations. Mr. Gilmore finds that the program which began with a modest $30 million outlay has soared to more than a half billion dollar annual subsidy to 4,500 school districts across the nation. Today, although only 2.8 million children are actually "federally connected," half of the nation's 45 million public-school pupils attend schools now receiving impact aid.

Speaking of Mr. Nixon's attempt to trim the sails of the impact aid pork barrel, author Gilmore says, the President's "... recommendations to revamp or eliminate government programs that no longer serve the general public interest, if they are to be successful, must be backed to the hilt by an aroused citizenry." This can mean but one thing—vote against the spenders.

Nothing New

The following words of Daniel Webster uttered in a U.S. Senate Speech on March 12, 1938, should deflate the ego of those who think they have originated something new in their crusade against "the establishment." Said the incomparable Mr. Webster, "There are persons who constantly clamor. They complain of oppression, speculation, and pernicious influence of wealth. They cry out loudly against all banks and corporations, and a means by which small capitalists become united in order to produce important beneficial results. They carry on mad hostility against all established institutions. They would choke the fountain of industry and dry all streams."

Regardless of what they were called in Mr. Webster's day, they had the equivalent or the counterpart of today's campus radicals, communist inciters of violence and all the rest of the unpalatable breed whose chief aim in life is to create turmoil, rather than constructive dissent.

Memo from Merrily

By Merrily Baldwin

Extension Home Economist

A new bacteria might be lurking around your kitchen, just waiting for a chance to poison the food.

The bacteria, "Clostridium perfringens," is found in soil, water, foods and the intestines of many people, and it could cause a new rash of food poisoning, according to Dr. Richard V. Lechowich, Michigan State University food science expert.

"The bacteria is going to become more of a problem," warns Dr. Lechowich. "However, it will make little headway against alert housewives who can get the upper hand by using good food handling procedures."

Food service establishments are also vulnerable, says Dr. Lechowich. Last year in one school alone there were 1,800 confirmed cases of poisoning from "Clostridium perfringens."

"Beef, fowl and pork, in that order, are among the most vulnerable of foods to the bacteria," says the MSU scientist. "These are also favorite foods of the salmonella and staphylococcus."

Preventing food poisoning is the same with just about any bacteria. Extra precautions must be taken with popular kitchen tools such as the cutting board or mixing bowl.

Forexample, notes Dr. Lechowich, a cook should never place boiled chicken giblets on an unwashed cutting board previously used to cut up uncooked chicken.

"When someone puts cooked food on the contaminated cutting board the cooked food can easily become contaminated," warns Dr. Lechowich. "If it is eaten right away, it probably would do no harm, but when it is slowly or insufficiently heated or sits around several hours, those bacteria grow and multiply."

To avoid food poisoning, food handlers should:

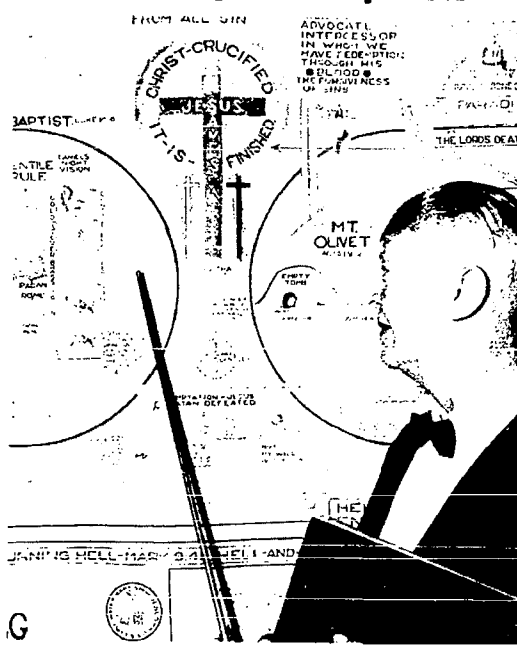

—Keep everything clean.

—Keep the temperature of vulnerable foods out of the temperature ranges at which bacteria thrive. (Foods should be kept below 45 degrees F. or above 145 degrees F. Leftovers should be refrigerated promptly and reheated thoroughly.)

"Remember, large volumes of food are more difficult to keep at safe temperatures," says the MSU food scientist. "Divide the food into portions small enough to control the temperature of all parts of the food."

A practical rule to follow when you are uncertain about a food remains: "When in doubt, throw it out!"

Bible Teaching at Assembly of God

Special Bible prophecy teaching services will be in progress Oct. 4-9 at the Grayling Assembly of God, 911 Elm Street.

Rev. John Brodie of Thousand Oaks, Calif. is the teacher. He teaches from a 7x21 ft. dispensational board or "plan of the ages" according to the Bible. The instruction is fundamental, evangelical and interdenominational in approach. A veteran Assemblies of God evangelist, both in the United States and Mexico, Rev. Brodie preaches and teaches in colleges, conferences and churches across the nation.

The public is invited to attend these services Sunday at 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. and nightly at 7 p.m. with the exception of Monday. The community of Grayling is very fortunate to be able to have such an outstanding and well known Bible prophecy teacher.

Board Meets At Kirtland

A light agenda at last week's Board Meeting resulted in a short meeting. Principal subjects included acceptance of Change Order #6 for science equipment to be built into the science labs of the Academic Studies building; authorization to proceed in obtaining additional equipment to be built into the automotive laboratory of the Occupational Studies building; and approval for the administration to accept the low bid of Bill Hart Ford, Grayling, for two new Fords — one for president's use and one for staff use. Dean of Students, Ed Harkins, presented a report showing the present headcount at 566 students. The next regular meeting will be held October 15, at Gerrish-Higgins High School, Roscommon.

Simplified Elections? No Way

If memory serves, I seem to recall that one of the big advantages cited in favor of adoption of Michigan's new 1963 state constitution was that it would make our state elections simple and less complicated, and therefore, help the voters to make more rational decisions.

But a look at the general election ballots to be submitted to voters in just a few weeks on Nov. 3 indicates the new Constitution may deserve an A for attempt, but also an E for effect.

Simplified elections in Michigan this year? No way, man!

The 1963 constitution did indeed make several election changes. For example, we no longer can elect a governor of one party and a lieutenant governor of the other party because you now must vote for the team in tandem; score one for reform. And the offices of auditor general and state treasurer—largely administrative rather than policy-making in nature—were taken out of the hands of the voters and now are filled by appointment; score two for reform.

And the governor's office and other full-time statewide posts were given four-year terms, and they are filled in non-presidential years so that the national race will not directly effect these statewide races; that makes three up for the new constitution.

But we still have a bedsheet ballot. We still have non-sensical methods of picking our supreme court justices (partisan nomination, non-partisan election). We still have a smorgasbord of statewide educational positions—eight at the Nov. 3 election—to be filled by partisan election.

An inspection of the sample ballot in the district where I vote: Delta township of Eaton county: shows we have five parties with nominees for governor. Most of us have heard of Sander Levin, the Democratic candidate, and William G. Milliken, the Republican candidate.

But how about James L. McCormick, George Bouse and James C. Horvath? They're all candidates for governor, too, on the American Independent Party, Socialist Workers Party, and Socialist Labor Party, respectively. They'll be on your Nov. 3 ballot, too.

On the statewide level, we also have these contests:

Secretary of State, Attorney General, United States Senator, Representative in Congress, State

Senator, Representative in State Legislature, two members of the State Board of Education, two members of the Board of Regents of University of Michigan, two members of the Board of Trustees of Michigan State University, two members of the Board of Governors of Wayne State University. Whew!

But that's not all. On the county level, we also have County Commissioner. If you live in a township, as I do, you have all the township officers, too, including constable.

But that's still not all. On separate non-partisan ballots, you must choose two members of the Michigan Supreme Court, plus one member of the State Court of Appeals. In various districts, there also are non-partisan elections either to fill vacancies or to fill newly-created judicial positions such as circuit judge, district judge, probate judge.

But that's still not all. Statewide, there will be three separate substantive issues to be decided—two constitutional amendments and one statewide general obligation bond issue.

The constitutional amendments involve yes or no in public funds being used for private schools (the so-called parochial amendment), and lowering the voting age to 18 (an idea which lost soundly four years ago).

The bonding plan would authorize $100 million in general obligation state bonds for construction of low income housing. There also was a lot of pre-election maneuvering on a statewide referendum for daylight savings time, but that one did not make the ballot this time.

Now, in addition to all this, various local units of government—cities, townships, counties—will have various local issues on the ballot. In my home county of Eaton, for example, we will vote on fixed millage allocation, and on membership in a tri-county airport authority.

Now, I don't mean to frighten the conscientious participants in the decision-making process among my readers—but you only have three or four weeks left to bone up on all the candidates, all the policies, all the platforms, all the qualifications, all the issues, all the proposals, all the questions involved in the Nov. 3 election. There are lots of all these weighty matters involved in the voters' decision, and time's a-wasting.

Oh, well, it could be worse. We no longer vote for fence viewers.

"If It Fitz . . ."

About Lawyers And Doctors
—By Jim Fitzgerald

Right now, in my favorite town, there is being heard considerable criticism of the legal profession.

"This makes the doctors happy," a wise man explained to me. "If people spend enough time knocking lawyers, they may forget to rap the doctors."

You can hear a lot of phony reasons why doctors and lawyers are often targets of lockerroom gossip and bridge-table barbs. You can hear the real reason from most any young woman who is seeking a husband and has not yet fallen in love with a truck driver.

"I would like to marry a doctor or a lawyer," she will say. This is because doctors and lawyers generally make a lot more money than truck drivers or newspaper writers. Mrs. Doctor can drive a Volkswagen because it's chic, not because it's all she can afford. When Mrs. Lawyer works on the church rummage sale, she doesn't come on duty early to search for shirts that will fit Junior.

There are, of course, exceptions. Some of my best friends are lawyers and doctors. Some of my best enemies, too. And many of them protest that all is not gold that glitters inside their crowded clinics and offices.

But they needn't protest to me. Rich or poor or in between it makes me no difference. Jealousy sours a man's stomach and makes everything he swallows taste bitter. I don't have time to envy. I'm too busy trying to pay my doctor bills.

Seriously, I don't begrudge the doctors and lawyers their incomes. I'm sure most of them work hard and honestly, and earn every cent. A survey would doubtless show that more people trust lawyers and doctors than trust newspaper editors. Me too.

Which brings me to my only real beefs against doctors and lawyers. They are too clannish and self-protective.

If I think newsmen have it coming, I don't hesitate to knock them — publicly and soundly.

But the other day, over a private Scotch and soda, a doctor told me too many doctors exercise their vanity by keeping terminal patients alive long after they should be allowed to die. But he forbade me to quote him. He didn't want to make his colleagues angry.

And I had four lawyers agree with me that a judge was doing something unlawful. But they all whispered and said they didn't dare speak out loud, they didn't want to offend the judge.

And the worst sin can be pinned on the lawyers alone. Too many of them take more cases than they have time for. This results in lousy service for the least important clients — usually the clients most in need of help and least likely to demand their money's worth. A couple of lawyers have admitted this to me — "but if you quote me I'll deny I said it."

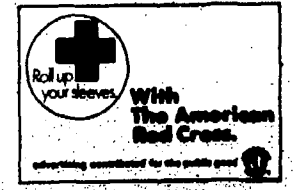

Too many doctors and lawyers refuse to speak out against one another. Maybe it has something to do with protecting their standing in the various medical and bar associations. Or maybe it's the same understanding as in the U.S. Senate: "I won't pick on you if you don't pick on me."

Whatever the reasons, the result can be the continuation of undesirable practices and a thumb in the public eye.

Which is a heck of a lot worse than making more money than a truck driver.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Wilcox,
If you find the "rubes and hicks of Crawford County so hard to stomach, why don't you move to Kalkaska, Traverse City or Gaylord or better yet stay in Albion? Our county would lose (?) a family of city big wigs but would gain a little more fresh air!

Sincerely,
Linda Smock Mires

Dear Editor:

"Drugs and the F.B.I."

Our highly touted supermen of the "cloak and dagger" world might justifiably be investigated as to whether they are doing their job. Historically, secret organizations of any government operate and gain power through legal devious means that rarely come under public observation.

Granted that the possession, use and resale of drugs is illegal, and therefore subject to punishment according to our laws, and granted that education aimed at preventing the use of drugs is desirable, and granted that rehabilitation centers for drug addicts are good and necessary, yet there's still one vital factor concerning this out-of-hand problem — "Where Does It Come From?"

The user as well as the retailer, and possibly the wholesaler would not seem to be of any great challenge to our efficient F.B.I. and its facilities? Then the obvious question arises — "Why Are Drugs So Available?"

A conscientious law abiding citizen might begin to question the skill, the very integrity of the organization specifically charged with the responsibility of arresting, prosecuting and jailing narcotics smugglers, and suppliers. I find it difficult to believe that the drug abuse that exists today is being carried on, without some kind of official negligence being practiced by those law enforcement super secret sleuths!

Arrest the user, the possessor, the pusher; jail him as long as the law is in the book, educate and rehabilitate, but keep in mind that a giant organization of our government, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, is supposed to prevent narcotics from being so easily obtainable.

Fully realizing that it is not very popular to even suggest this idea, "the prevalence of drugs carries its own indictment."

Sincerely,
Betty Brozo

Dear Editor,

In reference to the letter dated, Sept. 14, 1970, to the Avalanche from one, Joseph V. Wilcox, which you printed in the Sept. 24, 1970 paper — I'm not so sure the letter was as Mr. Wilcox says "critical" so much as ill-founded and ignorant.

I understand the gentleman writing the letter is an authority on law or supposedly so, being an attorney. In this case sir, what makes you an authority on law, development, mobile home parks, retail business, canoe livery operation, Chamber of Commerce activity, zoning, smelting and leeching? I wasn't aware that you could acquire all this knowledge in law school — you must be what they call a "Jack of all Trades."

Just for your information the State of Michigan has many laws concerning the development of land and mobile home parks. The Plat Act #288, Jan. 1968, Trailer Coach Park Act, of 1959, as amended etc. If you seem to think these laws are causing rapacious plunder of the land, why don't you write to your representative, congressman, attorney general or someone to see that the laws are changed. Don't knock the guy for abiding by the laws.

I get the impression that since you have become a land owner in Crawford County, everyone else should be kept out. "They shouldn't rent so many canoes," "Build any more mobile parks," "turn the north into a suburb of Detroit," etc. Almost 80% of this county is state and Federal property. It won't get as big as Detroit, or even Albion and I believe even with all our "greed" our taxes are still considerably cheaper.

You speak of the "rubes and hicks" and their ways to ignore customers. Well possibly some of them are a little unsophisticated and not so finely polished as a big city lawyer, but I'll say one thing, they aren't phoney. They're so busy making an honest dollar they don't have time to write ill founded and slanderous letters.

I also am a property owner on the streams and tributaries, love to fish and agree that we have problems at times with the canoeists. These problems are being solved, one at a time. Just because Mr. Longworth and others haven't solved each problem yesterday doesn't mean a thing. Wars, starvation, segregation, disease, etc., aren't solved either but because these weren't answered in the past doesn't mean we won't try in the future. Hindsight and grumbling has always been easy, but foresight, guts and accomplishments are something else. Mr. Longworth and his "Cronies" are dedicated workers for the community, and rivers. He does more in any one day than many realize. I know, I am a past director of the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce, and proud of it, also a friend of Mr. Longworth. I wonder how long you'd work the hours Mr. Longworth does as chamber manager for the salary he receives? We're just fortunate to have a responsible and dedicated citizen with the intestinal fortitude.

Your ill conceived descriptive words "mealy mouth" seem to fit more big city attorneys than they do anyone in this "hick" community.

Your letter also states that all our local canoe livery operators are "greedy and feathering their already well lined nests" — (I'm not a livery operator or never have been). I just wonder why most of these persons have two jobs if they're robbing the public so much with one? I just wonder how many attorneys in your city have an extra job on the side? And what sir, gives you the audacity to think you are superior to the canoeists? If they would rather canoe than fish that's their prerogative. You don't own any more of the rivers than anyone else. They belong to the public, so long as they keep within the law.

I would like to add one more thing if I may. You may become a member of the Grayling Chamber, you may compete for the position of manager of the chamber, you may go to meetings of the chamber, your township meetings, etc. You may go into business here and run the "rubes and hicks, swindlers and leeches" out.

It is, as I said before, quite simple to be a complainer or complainant, but another matter to be a defender, or possibly sir, you should be a "humble and obedient servant" somewhere else!

Dear Editor:

Anyone who has lived in a large metropolitan area will attest what a pleasure it is to now reside in a rural community. We have blue skies, no smog, lots of trees, including an abundance of evergreen and birch to add extra beauty to a winter landscape. It is lovely to see the snow stay so pure in the fields and woods. We are most fortunate to be far removed from the dire plight of lakes dying and dead and birds and animals unable to reproduce. Some of the citizens simply do not believe there is a serious situation. A trip to view Lake Erie would do a lot in the way of proof. As far away as 100 miles from a major city would prove the air is filled with eddies of carbon monoxide, the sun shines but the sky is a sickly grey-yellow color.

Here life flows on much as before with no really serious problems. One of the sad things to learn is the total lack of regard for the life of small animals and birds, exhibited by many citizens. Our first thrill was to set up bird feeders so we could lure the birds into our vicinity. In a short time we had quite a variety and they have done more for us than we could ever do for them including keeping the garden bug free. We have had children stand under the feeders trying to shoot them, young lads are out "hunting" frequently.

We have come to a full realization that it is selfish to bring the birds into this neighborhood to become easy prey. There are few living creatures which kill purely for pleasure. We can excuse the ones which have instincts but no reasoning power. It is most difficult to reconcile man's reasoning, inasmuch as he can worship on Sunday and then show a total disregard for the creatures created by the Lord. Now we come to a serious and grave fact. In ecology each organism has a purpose, keeping this earth in balance and purifying the air and cleansing the water. Only man is not conducive, in fact a detriment. It is recognized that habits die hard, the desire to carry a gun is passed on from father to son to "make a man out of him." The fate of the buffalo is well known and most of the large animals which would provide meat for the tables are not numerous with the exception of the deer.

Scientists predict an 80% demise of present living creatures, within a period of 30 years. Innocent people will suffer with the guilty. The thoughtless will create a balance which he so richly deserves. He will probably have domesticated animals, rats, cockroaches, fleas, flies, and each other.

There is a large gully nearby planted with evergreen. Very soon the sound of gunfire will echo hour after hour. When we moved to this building every plate glass pane had been ridged with holes. Later, when the snow appears the snowmobiles will roar around us. Springtime will show most of the little evergreens have been topped or re-topped, thus creating another serious problem, lack of new forestry to replace the old and fallen.

It is time the church and school take up a neglected duty. Sermons in the church should incorporate a theme of conservation and ecology and the duty of the congregation in the name of religion. There should be repeated talks in the school with field trips to teach the younger generation an appreciation of his blessings. Who knows? It may become as important as football but that is doubtful.

It is later than you think. This world was not created for the purpose of eradication by hominids.

The Cheering Squad

Energy and exuberance are trademarks of youth. You can see it clearly when a group of cheerleaders go into action.

Quick reaction is a mark of youth. If the team wins, these girls will be on top of the world. If it loses, they will go home with shoulders slumped. They haven't really learned "to take it". Withstanding both success and failure is a mark of maturity, and finding the strength to go on becomes an act of faith.

Have you grown up? Do you have that kind of faith? If not, the first steps toward finding it might be a walk to the church door.

Carla Jean Marie Moshier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Moshier of Grayling, and Robert Gerald Gingerich, son of Mrs. Rudy Gingerich and the late Mr. Gingerich of Tawas City, were united in marriage on Sunday, Sept. 20 at 7 p. m., at St. John Lutheran Church, Grayling. Rev. Robert Haskel officiated at the double ring, candlelight service.

The altar was decorated with an arrangement of white gladioli and bebe mums. Pew markers were of white mums. Mrs. Robert Sorenson presided at the organ.

For her wedding, the bride chose a cathedral length gown of French chantilly lace. Tiers of the same lace formed the front of the gown from which a redingote effect descended into the cathedral train. It featured a Sabrina neckline and long tapered sleeves edged in ruffled lace. Matching lace petals accented by seed pearls held her silk illusion veil and she carried a cascade of red roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Roger Moshier was matron of honor with Mrs. Herluf Moshier and Miss Janet Hubbell serving as bridesmaids. Miss Connie Gingerich was a junior bridesmaid and Michelle Moshier was flower girl.

The bridesmaids wore floor length, empire styled gowns of orchid crepe with long puffed sleeves accented with white venetian lace. Their headpieces were of lavender satin and silk veil and they carried cascades of white stephanotis.

The junior bridesmaids and flower girl were attired in floor length A-line dresses of pink crepe with long, full, sheer sleeves and rose colored satin collars and flower embroidery. Their headpieces were of rose satin and they carried baskets of white mums.

The groom's attendants were Michael Gingerich of Tawas City, who served as best man, Richard Moshier of Grayling and Larry Gingerich of Flint. Randy and Scott Gingerich of Tawas City were junior groomsmen.

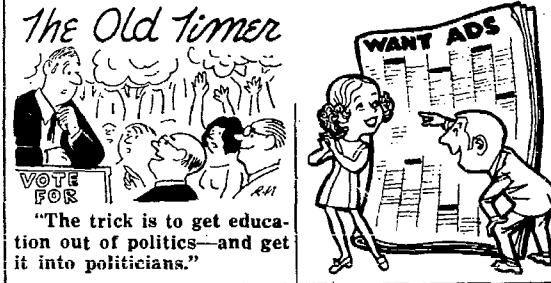

A reception was held at the American Legion Hall immediately following the ceremony for about 150 guests. The wedding party table held a centerpiece of pink daisies and lavender asters with pink candles. The buffet table centerpiece was of white gladioli and pink carnations.

Mrs. Moshier chose an aqua A-line dress with brown accessories for her daughter's wedding while the groom's mother wore a gold A-line dress with green accessories. Their corsages were of red miniature roses and stephanotis.

The new Mrs. Gingerich is a 1968 graduate of Grayling High School and attends Kirtland Community College. Mr. Gingerich graduated from the Tawas Area High School in 1968 and attended Kirtland Community College. They are making their home at 709 W. Bay, East Tawas.

Out of town guests were from Standish, Augres, the Tawas, Flint, Cadillac, Grand Haven, Hale, West Branch, Frederic, Omer, Turner and Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Funkh acted as host and hostess at the reception while pictures were being taken at the church.

PACK 93 NEWS

Well, here we are at the beginning of a new year and we're already in trouble. We need Den Mothers and we need 'em bad! We lost half of our Den Mothers from last year and we have more boys this year. So, if any of you good ladies would like to volunteer you would be most welcome. For information, call 348-7143 or 348-7145 or attend our first Committee Meeting on October 22nd at 7:30 p.m. in the basement of the Michelson Memorial Methodist Church.

We also are in need of men to act as Webelos leaders. You work with boys aged ten. This is a good age to work with and you will find it very self-satisfying. Call us at the above numbers or come to the meeting on the 22nd.

Now, how about some good news? On October 15th at six p.m., Sgt. Bud Halstead will give us a tour of the Tank Shop. This is for all newly signed boys and boys who were active last year. This also includes the fathers. Following the tour we will have a cook-out. We will furnish the fire but you will have to bring your own food and drink. Our funds are just a little shy at the present. For you newcomers, take the first road to the left past the North Down River Road. This will take you right to the Tank Shop.
